DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-21, drawn to promoting wound healing with sink and source switching, classified in class 607, subclass 50.
- II. Claims 22-32, drawn to wound healing with feedback of healing or impedance of the wound, classified in class 607, subclass 50.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I. and II. are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions have different functions one with and one without feedback.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I. is not required for Group II, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

During a telephone conversation with Mr. Rose on 11/14/05 a provisional election was made without traverse to prosecute the invention of Group II, claims 22-32.

Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action.

Claims 1-21 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37

CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claims 22, 24 and 28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Paton et al., US-6562037. Note the use of impedance feedback to regulate stimulation. Such feedback amounting to a “phase of healing”.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 23 and 25-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Paton et al. Although Paton et al. fail to teach the particular stimulation waveforms as claimed, it would have been obvious to those having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have altered the stimulation patterns in order to optimize device efficacy for a particular patient. While it is recognized that Paton is per se for heating, it is well known in the art that electrical current is a functional equivalent for wound healing. As to Claim 25, it would have been a mere choice in treatment design to utilize the device for multiple wounds.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 29-32 are allowed.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Sharkey et al. stimulate for nerve regeneration and use impedance feedback for stimulation control.
